Thousand Islands Kennel and Obedience Club “TIKO” Our 50 Years

The Club was formed in Brockville in the Spring of 1966 and has a long history of events in Brockville and area since then.

First Training classes for owners and Dogs were held in the summer of 1966 on the parking lot of the then Dominion Store, now the site of Car Wash.

First CKC Sanctioned Match was held on February, 1964 in the then “Moose Hall” on Centre Avenue with current Mayor John Broome cutting the opening ribbon.

First Canadian Kennel Club sanctioned Championship Dog Shows were held in August 1969 in the New Youth Arena in Brockville.

Our next Championship Dog Shows was held in the Memorial Centre Arena in down town Brockville at Rotary Park. With the demise of this facility, TIKO spent ten years holding shows and also Trials for Obedience located outdoors in the Elizabethtown Park, North Augusta Rd, Rows Corners.

With indoor and outdoor facilities available at the Brockville Memorial Centre, Magdome Drive in the City, TIKO relocated to this venue for the Dog Shows and Trials for over the past twenty years.

Dog Training classes have been conducted in the Community Hall at the Memorial Centre every Tuesday evening during Fall, Winter and Springs courses, usually with six classes each evening. Average enrolment would be 60 dogs and owners per night. The classes are for the community at large to train their dogs to be good citizens in our City of Brockville and area which benefits many owners and the city.

Dog Training Classes cover Puppy ages, Adult Obedience, Show Training, and Canadian Good Neighbour to help owners and dogs live in harmony. Other classes are held in the summer outdoors, weather permitting.

TIKO Club experienced Instructors volunteer their time to teach these Classes. Dogs adopted from the OSPCA are accepted for their first course at half cost.

Our purpose here this evening is to inform the City of our activities, to promote our visibility, and to share with the public at large the value TIKO brings to the community.

Sports Tourism has been conducted by the TIKO Dog Club for many years. We have provided this service by a small group of TIKO member over this time frame. We would like to continue to conduct shows and bring in visitors to our community. Help TIKO celebrate our 50 year Anniversary in 2016.

Thank you.
