9. SUB-COMMITTEE AND MEMBER REPORTS/PROJECT UPDATES

1. Review other City Winter Maintenance Policies

Member Billings circulated information he found on other cities websites. He did note that in all cases accessibility is not built into any policies. Member Billings discussed that the City of Toronto states that the AODA is silent with regards to winter maintenance. He was disappointed to see that accessible parking was not addressed either.

2. Accessible parking Sub-committee

The Sub-Committee will begin with a walk about once the weather is better. The City parking lots, and the downtown core will be their focus. They will meet with J. Mulder, who manages parking in the City and hopefully execute a plan in April.

10. CAPITAL BUDGET – REVIEW

1. January 2020

11. ADJOURNMENT

Moved by: Member Bamber

THAT the BMAAC meeting be adjourned until its next regular meeting scheduled for March 24, 2020.
